March Walking Tour – Heather Phillipson itinerary

This month's walking tour begins at the Whitechapel Gallery where you can see more flinching, a new commission by Whitechapel Gallery's Writer in Residence Heather Phillipson. You will then visit Window Space for the fourth manifestation of It is probably better to start from zero and PROOF, where artist Darren John explores the value of the untamed creative spirit and the centrality of this mind set in artistic expression. From here you will walk to Studio 1.1 for BodySnatchers, an exhibition investigating the fragility of the body and the concomitant mutability of identity. Your last stop for this evening will be at Union Gallery, where you will visit A digital suicide, Liam Scully's documentation of his Facebook project.
