

Whitechapel Gallery First Thursdays

Late night art on the first Thursday of every month in east London

Happy New Year from Whitechapel Gallery. View our new and ongoing exhibitions: ISelf Collection: The Upset Bucket, MATT + FIONA: Room for Art and Artists' Film International: Luis Lázaro Matos, Zheng Mahler, Nguyen Phuong Linh, Leonor Antunes: the frisson of the togetherness and Commissions from Performa's Archives. And if you haven't seen it already, it's your last chance to see Thomas Ruff: Photographs 1979 – 2017.

For January's Walking Tour, head to Oxford House (20 min) for Stephen Bell and Jon Chater's series of portraits. Next stop is SCAN- Spanish Contemporary Art Network (8 min). SCAN presents works by Pablo Capitán del Río and Eduardo Hurtado, addressing issues of animality, from ethology and metaphor, symbol and writing. Remaining on Herald Street, visit Maureen Paley. Maureen Paley (2 min) presents Andrew Grassie's paintings, which recreate in precise detail photographs that he has taken himself, found on the internet or sourced from archives.

- 1. Oxford House
Coming or Going? – EU Londoners Contemplate their Future
Derbyshire Street,
Bethnal Green, E2 6HG
@oxhse
- 2. SCAN- Spanish Contemporary Art Network
Animal Mirror
13-19 Herald Street
Bethnal Green, E2 6JT
@SCAN_ARTE
- 3. Maureen Paley
Andrew Grassie
21 Herald Street, E2 6JT
@MaureenPaley

Like us on Facebook: WhitechapelGallery
 Show your #FirstThurs finds at @_TheWhitechapel
 whitechapelgallery
#FirstThurs #art #eastlondon #walking tour