

Whitechapel Gallery First Thursdays

Late night art on the first Thursday of every month in east London

September's Walking Tour begins at Whitechapel Gallery. Discover a vibrant mix of art books and magazines at the launch of the London Art Book Fair. Free entry to all exhibitions including Staging Jackson Pollock, Surreal Science: Loudon Collection with Salvatore Arancio, Mikhail Karikis: No Ordinary Protest and Artists' Film International: Munem Wasif, Mikołaj Sobczak, Jibade-Khalil Huffman.

Next stop is a short walk to Gallery S O (6 min), to see Shelved, a collaborative show with artists exploring the role objects play in our lives. Second stop is Brady Arts Centre (9 min) for The Silk Road, a solo exhibition of shape and colour by artist Steve Homes. Finally, head to Stepney City Farm (23 min). Georgie Mason opens her Stepney City Farm studio showcasing semi-abstract landscape paintings from her India collection. Also on show is a selection of ceramic sculptures by Patrick Lears and natural fabric dyeing demonstrations from the Modern Eccentrics.

- 1. Gallery S O
Shelved
92 Brick Lane
E1 6RL
@galleryso
- 2. Brady Arts Centre
The Silk Road
192-196 Hanbury Street
E1 5HU
- 3. Stepney City Farm
Georgie Mason Studio
Stepney Way
E1 3DG
@StepneyCityFarm

🐦 Show your #FirstThurs finds at @_TheWhitechapel

📘 Like us on Facebook: WhitechapelGallery

📷 whitechapelgallery

#FirstThurs #art #eastlondon #walking tour