

Whitechapel Gallery

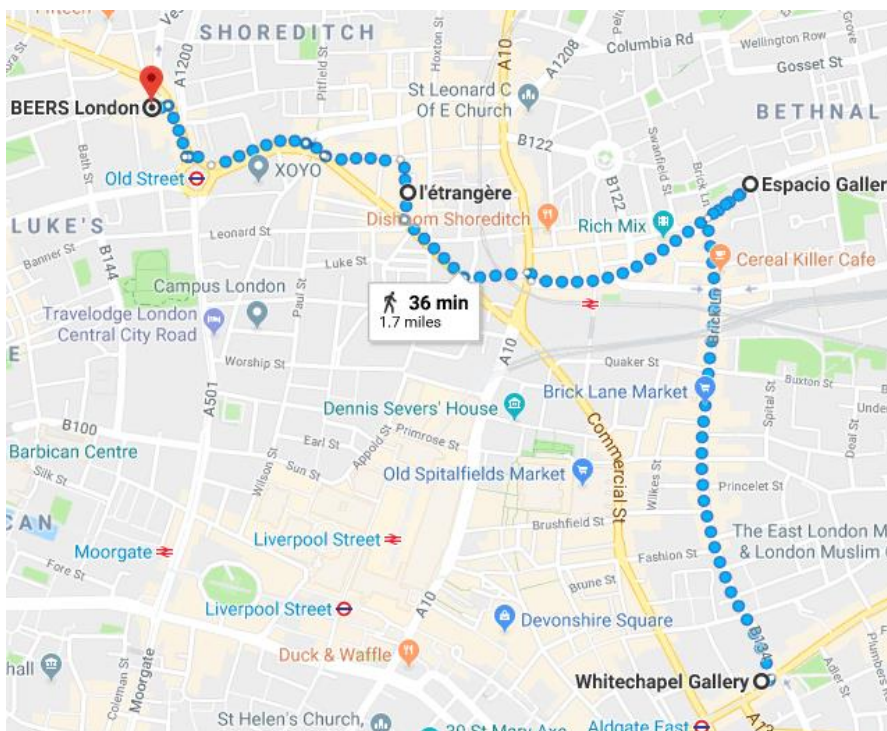

First Thursdays

Late night art on the first Thursday of every month in east London

August's Walking Tour begins at Whitechapel Gallery. Discover emerging art from a diverse city, The London Open 2018 features 22 artists working across painting, sculpture, performance and video. Free entry to all our summer exhibitions including Katja Novitskova: Invasion Curves, Killed Negatives: Unseen Images from 1930s America, ISelf Collection: Bumped Bodies and Alone Together: Youth Forum with Seth Pimlott.

Next stop is a short walk to the Espacio Gallery (14 min), to see Urban Angles, a collaborative show exploring the ever-changing spirit of the city. Second stop (12 min) is to L'étrangère, showing I dance for you my edifice, a solo exhibition by London-based artist Evy Jokhova including multimedia installation; interactive sound sculptures, photographs, paintings and performance. Finally, head to BEERS London (10 min) for their Summer Salon, which brings together a collection of works by gallery-represented artists.
