

WE ARE DUCHAMP & SONS¹

WE MEET, WE TALK, WE EAT²

WE ASK QUESTIONS³

WE ARE AN OPEN GROUP⁴

WHAT CONNECTS US ARE THE INTERESTS
WE SHARE AND THE PROJECTS WE DO⁵

BEING PART OF DUCHAMP & SONS GIVES YOU A KEY INTO THE ARTS⁶

WE ARE THE PAST WE ARE THE PRESENT WE ARE THE FUTURE

1

We are a group of young people.
We are creative, forward moving, diverse,
interesting and curious.
We are always transforming.

2

We meet at Whitechapel Gallery to share ideas.
We collaborate with each other and with artists who join us on our quest to create.

3

Will the art of today be significant tomorrow?
Can we give a voice to things that matter to us?
Can we collaborate creatively?
Do our passions define us?

4

We are constantly striving for both personal and collective change. Our values bring us together as a passionate community.
Authenticity, individuality, creativity and respect.

5

We find common ground through experiencing new things together. The Gallery is a platform for us to conjure crazy, silly ideas and expand our curiosity and interests.

6

We explore the elusive world of art.
We use our personal connections to art and young people to bridge the two.

Duchamp & Sons are Whitechapel Gallery's youth forum. Initiated in 2009, the ever-evolving group is shaped by its members. Their choice of name combines a reference to artist Marcel Duchamp, and to the shop Albert & Son on Whitechapel High Street.

In 2017, inspired by artists' manifestos, Duchamp & Sons explored their shared identity and the power of collective voice. Why do artists create manifestos? How do you collaborate with each other? Is there such a thing as collective identity? These were some of the questions that prompted their discussions. Developed in collaboration with artist Ruth Beale, this open-ended manifesto expresses their voice, purpose and ambitions.
