

Whitechapel Gallery

First Thursdays

Late night art on the first Thursday of every month in east London

November's Walking Tour begins at Whitechapel Gallery. Enter the immersive exhibition, Elmgreen & Dragset: This Is How We Bite Our Tongue (tickets available from the Info Desk).

Free entry to all other displays including Ulla von Brandenburg: Sweet Feast, Surreal Science: Loudon Collection with Salvatore Arancio, Staging Jackson Pollock and Mikhail Karikis: No Ordinary Protest.

The next stop is a short walk to Brady Arts Centre (9 min) to see Movement in De Stijl, a photographic exhibition that explores the abstract harmony of the De Stijl movement. Second stop is Caravansérail (11 min) for THESE IS LOVE SCENES, an anthology of works by Kay Gasei that revolve around the perils of some form of Love. Finally, head to St John on Bethnal Green (17 min) for the group exhibition GENESIS LIGHT MAGIC, a showcase of new works inspired by the historic Church. Also on display in the crypt gallery is The Shape of Light, an immersive installation by artists Zanny Mellor and Jessica Rayner.

- 1. Brady Arts Centre
Movement in De Stijl
192–196 Hanbury Street
E1 5HU
- 2. Caravansérail
THESE IS LOVE SCENES,
5 Cheshire Street
E2 6ED
@_caravanserail_
@caravanserail.london
- 3. St John on Bethnal Green
GENESIS LIGHT MAGIC
&
The Shape of Light
200 Cambridge Heath Road
E2 9PA

🐦 Show your #FirstThurs finds at @_TheWhitechapel

📘 Like us on Facebook: WhitechapelGallery

📷 whitechapelgallery

#FirstThurs #art #eastlondon #walking tour