

Whitechapel Gallery First Thursdays

Late night art on the first Thursday of every month in east London

December's Walking Tour begins at Whitechapel Gallery. Enter the immersive exhibition, Elmgreen & Dragset: This Is How We Bite Our Tongue (tickets available from the Info Desk).

Free entry to all other displays including Ulla von Brandenburg: Sweet Feast, Surreal Science: Loudon Collection with Salvatore Arancio, Staging Jackson Pollock and Mikhail Karikis: No Ordinary Protest.

The next stop is a short walk to Gallery S O (5 min) to see The Possibility of Someone, a new body of work by contemporary jeweller Manon van Kouswijk. Second stop is Beers London (22 min) for the group exhibition 15 Works on Paper. The 15 works on display span a spectrum of media, subject matter, and styles. Finally, head to PEER (12 min) for the image unseen, the image invisible, the image not shown a moving image exhibition by Belit Sağ in partnership with LUX that examines larger political topics in a personal and often intimate way.
