Duchamp & Sons are Whitechapel Gallery’s youth forum. Initiated in 2009, the ever-evolving group is shaped by its members. Their choice of name combines a reference to artist Marcel Duchamp, and to the shop Albert & Son on Whitechapel High Street.

In 2017, inspired by artists’ manifestos, Duchamp & Sons explored their shared identity and the power of collective voice. Why do artists create manifestos? How do you collaborate with each other? Is there such a thing as collective identity? These were some of the questions that prompted their discussions. Developed in collaboration with artist Ruth Beale, this open-ended manifesto expresses their voice, purpose and ambitions.
