Can we learn from art?

How would you describe an artwork to someone who can't see?

Is it more important that art makes you think something or feel something?

Can art contribute to society?

What is art?

Is there a difference between the price and the value of an artwork?

What would the world be like without art?

Does a work of art need to be beautiful?
What is art?