

Whitechapel
Gallery

Whitechapel Gallery Easy Read Guide

Simple language guide for your visit

About Whitechapel Gallery

Welcome to Whitechapel Gallery.

We are an art gallery in East London.

We show art by artists from around the world.

We have been open for over 100 years.

We are free and open to everyone.

Our Exhibitions

Our exhibitions are always changing.

Some exhibitions are free.

For some exhibitions you need to buy a ticket.

Front Desk

Somebody at the front desk will welcome you when you enter.

You can borrow these things from the front desk:

Headphones

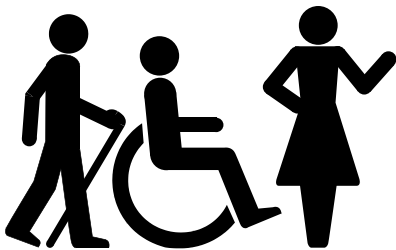

Wheelchair

Magnifying glass

Fidget toys

Folding chairs

Large print guides

Visiting the free exhibitions

Our free exhibitions are in the right-side of the building.

Gallery 2 shows free films. It is on the ground floor.

Galleries 4, 5, 6 and 7 are free. They are all upstairs.

You can use the stairs or the lift.

Visiting the paid exhibitions

You need to buy a ticket for some exhibitions.

A concession ticket is £9.50.

Companions can enter with you for free.

The paid exhibitions start in Gallery 1.

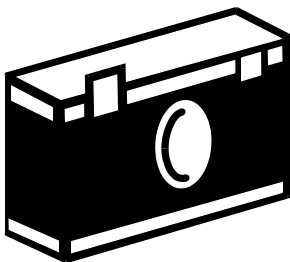

It is next to the Front Desk.

Inside the galleries

Please do not touch the art works.

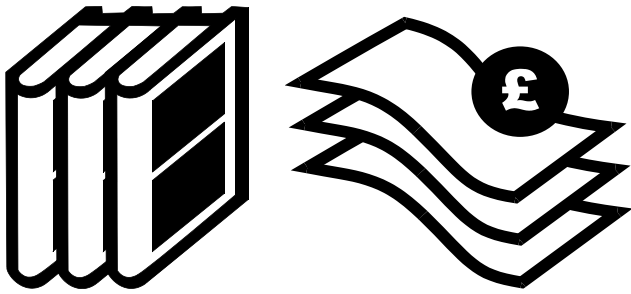

You can take pictures in the gallery.

You can draw or sketch in the gallery.

You can ask questions and discuss the artworks with our staff.

Visiting the bookshop

There is a bookshop inside the gallery.

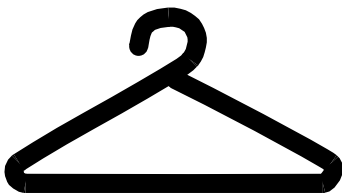

You can browse and buy books.

Visiting the cafe

There is a cafe inside the gallery.

You can buy drinks and snacks here.

The Cloakroom

You can leave bags or coats in the cloakroom.

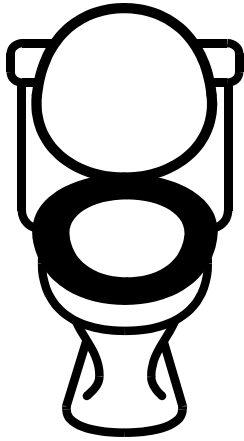

The cloakroom is free.

Seating area

You are welcome to rest in the seating area.

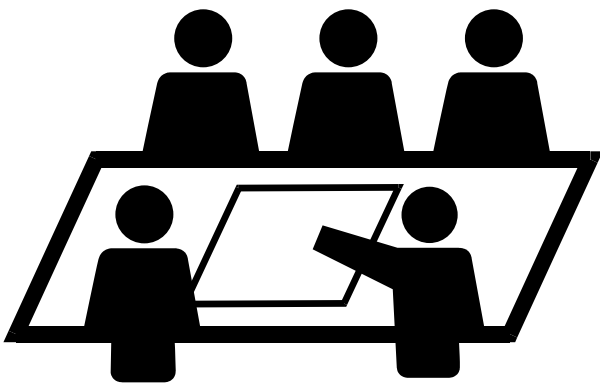

You can bring any food or drinks here.

Toilets

We have an accessible toilet on the ground floor.

We have other toilets in the basement.

Events and Tours

We often have performances, events and workshops at the gallery.

We have tours with audio description and in British Sign Language.

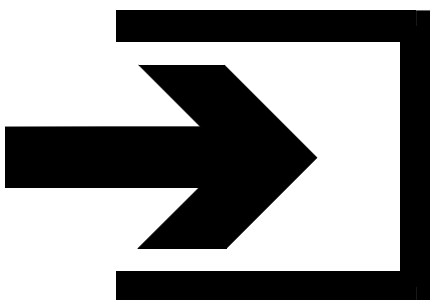

You can find details about these in the Season Guide.

You can ask a member of staff about what's on.

Leaving the Gallery

We have two exits. The exit by the Cafe has 2 steps. The exit by the Front Desk is flat.

Thank you so much for your visit!